

Michael Martin Rüdiger,
Chairman of the Supervisory Board of BlackRock Asset Management Deutschland AG, Member of the Supervisory Board of Evonik Industries AG & Vonovia SE

Michael Martin Rüdiger has been a member of the Government Commission on the German Corporate Governance Code since March 2026. He is Chairman of the Supervisory Board of BlackRock Asset Management Deutschland AG and a member of the Supervisory Boards of Vonovia SE and Evonik Industries AG (where he is Chairman of the Audit Committee). He has been working also as an independent management consultant since January 2020.

From November 2012 to December 2019, Michael Martin Rüdiger was Chairman of the Board of Management of DekaBank Deutsche Girozentrale AöR. During this time, he was a member of the Management Board of the German Savings Banks Association (DSGV) and the Association of German Public Banks (VÖB). From 2017 to 2019, he chaired the Stock Exchange Council of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange.

Michael Martin Rüdiger began his professional career in 1990 in the trainee program at Hoffmann-La Roche in Basel. He then held various management positions at Schweizerische Kreditanstalt, Schweizerische Bankgesellschaft, and Credit Suisse Group, most recently (2008 to 2012) as CEO of Credit Suisse for Central Europe. Between 1998 and 2000, he was a member of the Management Board of Allianz Asset Management GmbH.

Michael Martin Rüdiger studied business administration at Justus Liebig University in Giessen and graduated with a degree in business administration. At the same time, he completed a company-based degree program (BVS) at Siemens AG.

(November 2025)