

Claudia Kruse,
Managing Director Sustainability & Governance
APG Asset Management

Claudia Kruse was appointed as a member of the Regierungskommission Deutscher Corporate Governance Kodex by the German Federal Ministry of Justice and for Consumer Protection in March 2016. She is the Managing Director Sustainability & Governance of APG Asset Management in Amsterdam - a dedicated pension fund investor on behalf of five Dutch pension funds. She joined APG in 2009 and heads up the team since 2011. She is on the Board of Eumedion, the Dutch Investor Corporate Governance Platform, and has been working internationally on corporate governance and sustainability in an investment context for more than 15 years.

Prior to her career with APG, Ms Kruse worked at J.P. Morgan Securities (2007 to 2009) and F&C Asset Management (2002 to 2007) in London. Ms Kruse has a degree in International Management and Chinese from Bremen University of Applied Sciences in Germany and an MSc from the University of London, School of Oriental and African Studies. Her academic career also included guest teaching at Kings College, London.

(March 2016)