

Dr Sebastian Sick,

Head of Corporate Law and Corporate Governance at the Institute for Codetermination and Corporate Governance of the Hans Böckler Foundation

Dr Sebastian Sick was appointed as a member of the Regierungskommission Deutscher Corporate Governance Kodex in April 2021. He is Head of Corporate Law and Corporate Governance at the Institute for Codetermination and Corporate Governance (I.M.U.) of the Hans Böckler Foundation. He advises members of codetermined supervisory boards in Germany and Europe on legal and practical issues in the field of (European) company law and corporate governance. Furthermore, he was involved in negotiations for the establishment of European stock corporations (SE). Sebastian Sick coordinates the qualification program for supervisory boards of the I.M.U. and acts as a speaker in seminars for supervisory board members.

As an expert, he was participating in hearings of the Bundestag, the European Economic and Social Committee and the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD). He is a sought-after expert in the ongoing development of European company law.

The attorney at law Dr Sick studied law at the University of Cologne and obtained a master degree in European law from the Saarland University. He holds a doctorate in corporate governance in Germany and Great Britain and was a member of several supervisory boards, including SAP SE.
